Alexandria Gazette To FARMERS.

TUESDAY EVENING, MARCH 13.

JUSTICE CLIFFORD is surprised that his absence from the Capitol during the inaugural cermonies should be regarded as politically significant He says he remained away because he had been informed that President Hayes had taken the eath of office on Sunday night, and this ceremony, which has always been performed at the Capital in the presence of the fuil Supreme Court, would be omitted. Having a great deal of pressing work to do on opinions delayed in consequence of services on the Electoral Commission, he decided to remain quietly at home and work. He denies that his political feeling had anything to do with his absence.

JUDAH P. BENJAMIN, once Confederate Minister of War, but a Q. C. enjoying the largest commercial practice at the English bar, lately returned all his briefs for the Guildhall sitting. accompanied by checks for the fees he had received with them, because all his time would be taken by the causes at Westminiter Hall, and he did not think it right to retain payment for business which he could not attend.

THE ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE and VIRGINIA ADVERTISER, already read by three generations, proposes to continue its useful life, and now enters into another volume. determined to be the newspaper of the era in Virginia.

Never have the times demanded more than now sound, thoughtful journalism. Seldom navo the people had deeper interests at stake. Never did the events of the hour, as they unfold themselves, surpass in personal interest to every citizen those which are now transpiring. Never has the importance of early, authentic intelligence of public matters been of greater miportance to every one.

To meet this new ora in journalism, the Ga-ZETTE will put forth its utmost endeavor, and its success during this entire century in catering to the wants and meeting the wishes of the people, guarantees that with this paper promise means performance.

Washington s now the point to which all eyes look and all ears are directed. Almost at the base of the Capital, and yet in a Virginia town, amid a community which has proved its faithfulness to Virginia in more than one fiery trial; surrounded by the traditions and hopes of the Commonwealth, the GAZETTE has a position unique among journals and premises to be worthy of it. Its contiguity to Washington gives it an early precedence over all the journals of the State in intelligence of the operations of the General Government, now of such vital importance to the people of the South. The procoedings of Congress, soldom so interesting as now, will be regularly reported in succinct form for its columns, but all matters of especial interest in Virginia will be given in detail. Two gentlemen connected with the paper are con stantly at the Federal capital, and the Washington news of the Gazette has for a long time been the fountain of Washington news for the State.

As the interests of the people mainly centre at home, no pains will be spared to chronicle alt matters occurring in the city and neighborhood, carefully excluding unseemly expressions or gross narrative as unfit for a journal that is treasured at many thousand hearthstones of

From the State Capital it will receive early and accurate accounts of the proceedings of the General Assembly and of all the operations of the State government likely to interest the peo-Especial attention will be devoted to presenting, as well from original sources of information as from its exchanges, the news of Virginia. Concisely and completely it will gives the news of the world. In its Commercial columns the especial feature will be promptness and accuracy. The farmers, drovers and commercial people of the State know they MAY DEPEND upon the Gazette. Early and reliable reports of the Grain, Cattle, Grocery and other Markets wi'l be furnished and the prices and position of the stocks, which are the subjects of business transactions in this section of the country, carefully quoted. The continual favors of those who have once used the Gazette as an advertising medium is a warrant for saying that it pays to advertise in its columns. The Gazette came into existence before the opening of the present century. Few newspapers in the country are its seniors . During all this period its prominent object has been to advance the interests of the people of whose life it is the daily chronicle. Its fortunes inspiration has been the desire to forward the

have been their fortunes; it has shared their prosperity and suffered in their disasters. Its best interests of the community in which it is located, and its own prosperity is, as it has been purposely made, inseparable from that of the community it aims to represent. When they grow rich it hopes for a reward commonsurate with its labors. While they are poor it expects to work with them and for them, expecting to make their success the measure of its own.

ANALYSIS:

Ammonia . Soluble Phosphate of Lime......22.18 The most concentrated, universal and durable fertilizer ever offered to the farmer-combining all the stimulating qualities of Peruvian Guano, and the ever durable fertilizing properties of Bones. In fine dry powder, prepared expressly for drilling.

After NINETEEN YEARS' experience by the farmers of Maryland and Virginia in the use of "Excelsior," it is their unanimous opinion that an application of 100 pounds of "Excelsior" is equal to from 200 to 300 pounds of any other fertilizer or guano, and therefore fully 100
